4. Consideration of the Audit Report of the Park Fair held in December 1929.

Resolution.—Resolved that the office must prepare a note on the several points objected in the Audit Report, send for the explanation of the person or persons responsible for the conduct of the Fair and then place it before the Standing Committee of the District Board for consideration. Such of the members of the Standing Committee who have to render their explanation to the objections taken by the Audit Officer are to be excluded from the deliberations of the Standing Committee on the point.

5. Consideration of the question of having an Honorary Vice-President to the Board.

Mr. B. Nagappa, Bar-at-law, proposed that there shall be an Honorary Vice-President elected out of the Members of the District Board, which was seconded by Mr. B. M. Munisamappa.

The matter was put to vote and unanimously carried.

6. Captain Y. V. Iyya, moved the following proposition.

"This Board recommends to the Government to introduce the system of recording the roll of the members present at each meeting instead of the present system requiring the signatures of the members present."

This was seconded by Mr. Veere Gowda and carried.

V. VENKATAPPA,
President.
